James Coleman, was found guilty yesterday on the charge of assault when he appeared before Justice of the Peace Harry H. Grier, and was given a suspended sentence of two weeks. The arrest grew out of a words argument in a local club.

AMUSEMENTS

ALICE BRADY AT THE BUTLER TODAY

A photoplay as breezy as the great New England coast where the principal events of the drama take place, "Sinners," a Realart production, which has thrilled theatre-goers else where in a no uncertain manner, will be seen at the Butler today.

This stirring screen drama concerning the fortunes of a New England girl who leaves home and goes to the big city in search of work in an adaptation from the Owen Davis stage success of the same name, "Sinners" is not a melodrama, as many will recall who saw it on the speaking stage, but a true characterization of life in the small town where everything and everybody moves by rule and route, and gossiping tongues swing from the center.

What a contrast to the existence led by big city dwellers, who are seemingly heartless, Godless, sodomites!

Added to the feature will be a Prizma film, "Skyland," and a Screen Letter Box, Tomorrow, Wallace Reid in "The Dance of the Fool," and another Harold Lloyd film, "The Kid," comedy, "Captain Kidd's Kid."

Coming Monday, Norma Talmadge in "The Daughter of Two Worlds," conceded to be her very best picture.

Elko Attorney-Rancher Leaves Democrats

The one topic along political lines that is being discussed above all others in local circles is the announcement made by F. S. Gidney that he has seen the light and is now as ardent a Republican as he has been a Democrat in the past.

Gidney is but one of the many large stockmen of this section of the state who has been brought to a realization that it is absolutely necessary for a change in the administration of they are to continue in business.

The Central Market, newly remodelled with a modern equipment and carrying one of the finest lines of fresh and cured meats in southern Nevada, will reopen Saturday morning, October 16, under the management of Knorr, Zimmer & Timlin. Your patronage solicited.
